PREACHING PLAN

MARCH to MAY 2015

Christ has died, Christ is risen

SUPER'S SOAP BOX

Dear Friends,

Well this is probably the most difficult Plan I have had to make in all my years of being a Superintendent. Not only do we have 14 Sundays in the Quarter (instead of the usual 13) but with sabbaticals, holidays, illness and limited availability for other reasons, you will see that the busiest planned preacher is LA. I note that LA is planned at every church and for some of you more than once! I really cannot produce Preachers 'out of a hat' so have had to make certain decisions across the Plan to 'fill' appointments. I'm also fairly sure this will not be a 'one off' but a regular pattern....a good job that LA doesn't claim their travel expenses!

So this is where I get on my Super's Soap box and challenge everyone what happens when LA is planned? Some churches join with other churches to worship, either Methodist or ecumenically (who may also be short of preachers), which has got to be a good thing. Other churches take it as an opportunity to be creative by involving others in worship either in the existing pattern (but without a sermon) or using other styles. Some do a 'Songs of Praise' which is OK every now and then so long as we make sure it is still worship rather than just 'a good sing'.

However, I still sense that if we are not careful we are just 'filling the gaps' with LA. It avoids the obvious challenge....where are new Preachers being raised up? At the moment we only have one local preacher 'on trial'...who will be leaving the circuit in August. Has God really stopped calling people to preach His word? I believe not! I wonder if we have somehow 'lost confidence' in proclaiming faith and somehow think we have to be an 'expert' to be a preacher.....to which I can hear our Preachers say in terms of being an expert 'certainly not'!

The reality is most of our preachers, myself included, started off by being asked to do a reading in worship or leading some prayers which then led to a sense that maybe God was calling us to preach His Word. Part of our Methodist history was 'Testimony meetings' where people gave testimony to what God had been doing in their lives that week. This inspired people in the faith. But it doesn't have to be just part of our history....it can be something we do TODAY when LA is planned.

Finally I want to say a big 'thank you' to all our preachers who have been planned. Please continue to be kind and attentive to them. Can I also ask that out of your kindness you do not ask them to come instead of LA. Our preachers have offered all the appointments they are able to.....and maybe they want to sit and receive from LA.

Stephen
