NOTICES AND NEWS for

Sunday 18th and 25th October

We offer you a warm welcome to worship. If you are new to the Church or visiting please feel free to join us for tea or coffee after the Service. If you would like prayer after the Service then our prayer team will be seated in the left front corner.

SUNDAY 18th October

10.30

Today our service will be led by Jim Midgley and friends.....

You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might." —

Deuteronomy 6:5

WORSHIP THE LORD

Head and heart knowledge go together!

Fortnightly on a Thursday evening there is an opportunity for prayer from 8pm onwards
 Next one Thursday 22nd
 The session is based around inviting the Holy Spirit to lead and inspire, in prayer for the world and the church in prayer ministry for each other and inviting words of encouragement.
 Please come and join in.

Do you think it is helpful or unhelpful to have so many denominations?

What do you think should be the one uniting factor between all the denominations?

Property notice

.....see the bottom of the page!

At the recent Strictly Question evening we discussed the following questions.

Do modern Christians expect miracles to happen today?

Do we expect them to happen as much as the early Christians, or maybe even people in other countries ?

Do YOU expect a miracle to happen this week?

We are grateful to those people who put in many hours to maintain the church building. If you could volunteer to help now and again , please speak to Bob or Chris

Don't forget the church will be open for prayer on Thursday 29th October
